#16244 Pemberton, W. Baring. BATTLES OF THE BOER WAR. Blue cb, 216pp, generously illus b/w plates, dwgs, maps. 8vo. bibliography, index. No inscrip. VG+ unread copy in pc.d/w (shows foxing to rear and inside, but still bright and attractive and features no tears, loss or chips at all). Batsford. London 1964.

The battles of Belmont, Modder River, Magersfontein, Colenso and Spion Kop form the subject of this book. The author shows that the Boer commanders also were not all without fault or their measure of good fortune. His account of the fighting itself makes impressive use of unpublished letters, diaries and other eye-witness material.

£25.00

#16248 Ransford, Oliver. THE BATTLE OF MAJUBA HILL. The First Boer War. Orange cb. 154pp illus b/w plates, maps. bibliography, index. A Fine unread copy in a Fine pc.d/w - absolutely no faults to record. John Murray. London 1968 rpt. ISBN 0719517184
The 1881 battle by the Boer irregulars inflicted a humiliating defeat on the British army under the command of General Colley. This was the last time that British forces wore their redcoats into battle.

£20.00

#16227 Reitz, Deneys. COMMANDO. A Boer Journal of the Boer War. Orange cb. 331pp 8vo. Eps browned & marked, but boards very clean with square corners. d/w fox but complete if chipped at spine. Still attractive with the nice old d/w showing boers on horseback patrol. Faber. London 1950.
The simple straightforward story of what the war meant to one participant in it. Colonel Reitz entered the war at age 17 and fought right through to the end, writing down these memoirs immediately after its conclusion. Preface by J.C. Smuts.

#16216 Tucker, E.N. & McGregor, P.M.J. PER NOCTEM PER DIEM. The Story Of 24 Squadron, South African Air Force. Gilt on navy cb. 291pp lg.8vo. No inscrip. G+ in d/w (worn, but no loss). 24 Squadron Album Committee. Cape Town 1st edition 1961.
The squadron was active in east and north Africa, and then in Italy. Roll of Honour.
